

Watertown south dakota art festival 2009 youth art exhibit

SAVE THE DATE!

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12th-13th, 2009

Exhibit Held at the Goss Opera House

The Watertown Art Festival is Northeastern South Dakota's premier art event. Each Year this non-profit festival draws thousands of people from throughout the Midwest for a two-day show featuring art for all tastes.

The Watertown Art Festival would like to welcome back the Youth Artist to exhibit again in this year's event. All medias are welcome to the show, including: paintings sculptures, pottery, watercolor, mixed media, wood carving, jewelry, fabric, and photography. The Youth Exhibit is FREE! As an art club we encourage the arts and look forward to seeing all your students work. Prizes will be awarded; 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and best of show per age group. Students may participate in their division (year in school as of January 1, 2009). Each student is welcome to submit 3 art pieces.

This year we are proud to announce the judging will be done by three of the artist exhibiting at the festival. Judging will be held on Sunday at 2:00 pm, students are not required to attend, but strongly encouraged. Prizes will be awarded directly after judging. Students are allowed to take their work at 4:00 pm on Sunday.

Student Age Groups

Kindergarten - 5th grade

6th grade - 8th grade

9th grade - 12th grade

Art Divisions

Pencil / Pen drawings

Watercolor / Acrylic Paintings

Pastels / Oil / charcoal Drawings

Pottery / Wood Carvings

Photography

Open Class - all media's welcome

Process for Art submission

We are asking all art teachers to encourage students to submit their work, please label each piece with name of student, age group, contact number and division the piece will be entered. Art work is not required to be framed, however we are asking the students to mount their work on foam core or matt board. Deadline for sign-up is September 1st, 2009. Please email Lisa Lounsbrough, (youth art committee member) at lisa@threesixtydesign.com or call 605-868-3569 to arrange pick up of artwork.

For questions on the Youth Art Exhibit please feel free to call or email Lisa Lounsbrough (lisa@threesixtydesign.com or 605-868-3569). The Watertown Art Festival is looking forward to seeing all the wonderful talent in the 2009 show!

www.wtnartfestival.com